PRESS RELEASE

Manutencoop Facility Management S.p.A.: the judge of Naples rejects the temporary injunction requested by the Public Prosecutor pursuant to Law Decree n. 231/2001 in connection with the investigation relating to the Azienda Ospedaliera Santobono-Pausilipon

Zola Predosa (Bologna), June 1, 2017

Manutencoop Facility Management S.p.A. ("MFM" or the "Company") informs that the judge for preliminary investigations of Naples rejected the temporary injunction (injunction from entering into contracts with public entities) pursuant to Law Decree n. 231/2001 requested by the Public Prosecutor of Naples relating to the investigation of the tender for the awarding of cleaning services at the Santobono-Pausilipon Public Health Agency (Azienda Ospedaliera di Rilievo Nazionale Santobono-Pausilipon).

MFM was informed of the request for such temporary injunction through press reports on April 4. MFM rejected the charges and any alleged unlawful or illegitimate conduct. MFM wishes to emphasize its full confidence in the work of the investigating authorities and will continue to fully cooperate with the investigating officials to facilitate a rapid conclusion of the investigations.
